

Experience International Relations, Politics & Leadership Course Outline

Class	Class Content and Lesson Objectives
1	Introduction to the course: Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Get to know each other and understand what to expect from the course ● Set norms and values for the course ● Understand their overall task for the course Theories of Leadership Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Learn about different theories of leadership and debate what makes a good leader ● Look at examples of leaders from different fields
2	Political Change Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Look at examples of political change over time from around the world ● Debate what makes political change most effective
3	Democracy Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Explore the key features of a democracy ● Look at how democracy has developed in different historical contexts around the world
4	Politics and the Economy Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Discover the importance of economics in society ● Explore the relationship between politics and the economy, using real examples of political decisions from different countries
5	International Relations Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Explore international law, human rights and the causes of war, and the processes involved in international relations
6	Global Organisations Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Discover what a range of important global institutions do ● Explore their influence in International Relations (using real-life examples).
7	New World Powers Students will complete: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Discuss what countries we mean by “new world powers” ● Grapple with the changing world of new powers, including the BRICs (Brazil, Russia, India, China) and the Middle East
8	Leadership Style Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Consider their own leadership style ● Work together to identify different styles of leadership ● Learn how to identify and hone a leadership style

X	Class X: The final class is based on the tutor's personal expertise in the field, focusing on cutting-edge research that they're passionate about.
	Challenge Students will get the chance to put their skills to the test during our Model United Nations Challenge: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Work with the Experience Debate and Public Speaking Academy students in a simulation UN Security Council● Practise critical thinking, communication and teamwork skills● Present and debate critical worldwide issues with other diplomats who have conflicting interests, and develop solutions that gain consensus despite an unexpected crisis situation

Please note, this course outline may be subject to change